National Fastener Distributors Association Announces New Board of Directors

(Chicago, IL) – The National Fastener Distributors Association (NFDA) has announced its 2008 Board of Directors. Responsible for governing all affairs of the organization within its by-laws, the NFDA Board is comprised of both Distributor and Associate members within the industry.

Mark Shannon of Tower Fasteners Co. in Holtsville, N.Y. serves as President of NFDA and Wendy Rose of Blue Chip Engineered Products in Cincinnati, Ohio is the Vice President/Treasurer. In addition, four new members are serving their first term on the NFDA Board. They include Dave Monti of Fall River Manufacturing Co. in Fall River, Mass.; Jack O'Donoghue III of Accurate Fasteners Inc. in South Boston, Mass.; James Spillman of Creative Assembly Systems in Groveport, Ohio; and Steve Turner of Great Lakes Fasteners & Supply in Traverse City, Mich.

They are joined by the existing NFDA Board of Mark Alexander of Wurth Industry in Maple Grove, Minn.; Matt Cordova of Cordova Bolt, Inc. in Buena Park, Calif.; Timothy O'Keeffe of G.L Huyett in Minneapolis, Kan.; Joel Roseman of Arnold Industries in Canton, Mass.; Raul Torres of Action Threaded Products, LLC in Countryside, Ill.; Nilo Urbani of Nylok Corporation in Macomb, Mich.; and Dan Zehnder of Trinity Logistics Corp. in Racine, Wisc.

“We are extremely fortunate to have such a strong board in place that is focused on creating innovative membership programs, all vital to NFDA in the coming years,” commented John Hausoul, NFDA Executive Vice President. “We look forward to utilizing their strengths to fortify our organization as we embark on an exciting future together.”
